LESSON PLAN

Exploring Money Beliefs

GRADES

7 to 12

TIME

45 minutes

OVERVIEW

Our core beliefs about money shape our behavior and influence the many financial decisions we make. This lesson gives students the tools to identify and discuss their attitude toward money. Students will think critically about the source of their money beliefs and connect those beliefs to both positive and negative financial behavior.

GOALS

- Demonstrate how students' attitudes toward money can influence their personal finance decisions
- Help students identify their own beliefs about money
- Help students critique the source(s) of their money beliefs

OBJECTIVES

- Identify the four money personas and their underlying money beliefs: avoidance, status, worship and vigilance
- Match each of the money personas with examples of real-world behavior
- Compare and contrast different sources of financial information and behavior

ASSESSMENT

An optional quiz has been provided with this lesson plan (the quiz is not factored into the lesson's 45-minute runtime).

Did you know? This lesson plan adapts concepts explored in the book Mind Over Money: Overcoming the Money Disorders That Threaten Our Financial Health by Brad Klontz, PsyD & Ted Klontz, PhD.*

DISCUSSION PROMPTS

Directions: Have students pair up (preferably with a partner who has a different money persona than they do). Share one of the following prompts and allow a few minutes for pairs to discuss. Then have students change partners. Repeat the process with a new discussion prompt each time. Students may jot down their findings on their ACTIVITY B worksheet.

- What's something you do that matches your money persona?
- How are you not like your money persona?
- What do you think your money persona is most afraid of?
- What do you think your money persona does really well?
- What does your money persona have to be careful of?
- What advice would you give to someone with your money persona?
